Valentine's Day is upon us. This day, generally characterized by showing your significant other some grandiose display of affection, generally goes uncelebrated in the business world. That is, until today.

At Bell Road Auto, we take our relationships with our customers very seriously. Long and lasting business relationships come with the same challenges of personal relationships. We enjoy the opportunity to get to know you. We have a deep appreciation for you and we are thankful to have such devoted customers.

On behalf of Bell Road Automotive, Reinette and I would like to take a moment to thank you for your continued loyalty and patronage. Without your support, we would not be able to improve our services each year.

Bell Road Automotive, is always striving to improve your customer experience. Please accept our heartfelt and sincere thanks!

Happy Valentine's Day!

Crispy Honey Orange Glazed Salmon

Ingredients

Servings: 2
Preparation: 10min
Cooking: 10min
Ingredients:
1 TBSP Butter
2 x 6 oz. Salmon Fillets
1/4 Cup Fresh Squeezed Orange Juice (1/2 an Orange)
1 1/2 TBSP Honey
1 TBSP Soy Sauce
2 Cloves Garlic, Crushed
Kosher Salt and Ground Pepper, to taste
1/2 an Orange, sliced thin to serve

Instructions:

- 1) Heat butter in a pan over medium-high heat. Sear salmon skin-side up for 3-4 minutes. Flip and sear for 2 minutes.
- 2) Pour in orange juice and reduce to half the quantity (about 1 minute). Add garlic and cook until fragrant(30 seconds). Move salmon to the sides of the pan and add honey and soy sauce, stirring well to combine all of the flavors together.
- 3) Bring to a simmer until reduced to a nice syrup, 30 seconds to 1 minute, and move the salmon around in the sauce to evenly coat. Remove from heat once the salmon is cooked.
- 4) Season with salt and pepper to taste. Drizzle with sauce and add thin slices of orange. Serve with salad or steamed vegetables.

Car Care for 2020

You have to drive to work, the gym, drive to the store, drive to your interview and drive to visit the amazing places in the US.

So why not resolve to take better care of your car and drive smarter?

- Get regular oil changes since they are your best investment toward the longevity of the engine.
- Get regular brake inspections which are the best way to ensure safe and reliable braking and minimize the cost of repairs when brake service is needed.
- Make sure your gas cap is secure and tight. A loose gas cap can trigger the “Check Engine” or “Service Engine Soon” light.
- Ensure your tires are properly inflated. Proper tire inflation can improve gas mileage by more than 3 percent when maintained regularly.
- Get regular alignment checks — they are your best way to maximize tire life and ensure that your car performs on the road as originally designed.
- Get routine tune-ups and engine performance checks — they can be your best assurance of good performance and fuel economy. A healthy running engine maximizes the life of expensive emission system components.
- Frequent washing and polishing is the best way to protect your car’s finish from the damaging effects of acid rain.
- You should check the condition of the coolant each spring and fall to make sure the additives that protect against corrosion still function.
- Have any suspicions of a leak checked out at once. Carbon monoxide from your car’s exhaust is odorless, colorless-and lethal.
- Try to replace your car’s fuel filter every two years or 24,000 miles for best results.
- During normal driving, you may not notice a light that isn’t working; inspect your car’s lights at every oil change.
- You should test your battery every fall. If your car’s battery is three years old or more, consider replacing it since the chances of failure increase.
- Improper ride height of your car can impact alignment angles and cause premature wear of some steering and suspension parts.

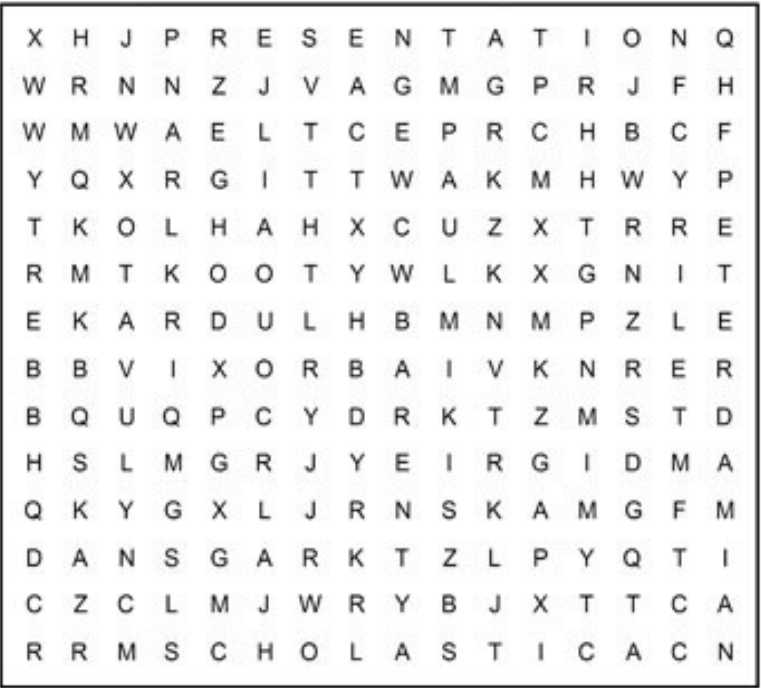

"The word February is believed to have derived from the name 'Februa' taken from the Roman 'Festival of Purification'. The root 'februo' meaning to 'I purify by sacrifice'. As part of the seasonal calendar February is the time of the 'Ice Moon' according to Pagan beliefs, and the period described as the 'Moon of the Dark Red Calf' by Black Elk. February has also been known as 'Sprout-kale' by the Anglo-Saxons in relation to the time the kale and cabbage was edible."
-Mystical WWW

The Roman month Februarius was named after the Latin term februum, which means purification, via the purification ritual Februa held on February 15 (full moon) in the old lunar Roman calendar. January and February were the last two months to be added to the Roman calendar, since the Romans originally considered winter a monthless period.

They were added by Numa Pompilius about 713 BC. February remained the last month of the calendar year until the time of the decemvirs (c. 450 BC), when it became the second month. At certain intervals February was truncated to 23 or 24 days, and a 27-day intercalary month, Intercalaris, was inserted immediately after February to realign the year with the seasons. Under the reforms that instituted the Julian calendar, Intercalaris was abolished, leap years occurred regularly every fourth year, and in leap years February gained a 29th day. Thereafter, it remained the second month of the calendar year, meaning the order that months are displayed (January, February, March, etc) within a year-at-a-glance calendar.

Even during the Middle Ages, when the numbered Anno Domini year began on March 25 or December 25, the second month was February whenever all twelve months were displayed in order. The Gregorian calendar reforms made slight changes to the system for determining which years were leap years and thus contained a 29-day February.
